Income Taxes

No provision for income taxes, either accrued or deferred, have been reported in the financial statements because the Company has incurred only net operating losses.